Gary began his mobile DJ career in 1995. His appreciation for music began much earlier during elementary and high school where he played the sax in various orchestral and jazz bands. Gary maintains an extensive selection of music ranging from oldies to the current hits, and welcomes requests to keep guests involved in the party. Gary's specialties include weddings, school events, and bar/bat mitzvahs. His relaxed and responsive nature make Gary a great choice for planning and performing at your event. Gary's equipment includes EV speakers, Denon CD players, various lighting effects and a video projector/portable screen. A recent career highlight for Gary was DJing a corporate party for a pharmaceutical company in a packed ballroom at the Trump Taj Mahal - plugging into the Taj's monster sound system. Brian Dzbenski

As a professional DJ, MC, and dance motivator for over 17 years, Brian has the knowledge and experience to make certain your affair is exactly the way you want it. In the past, Brian has worked closely with the 94.5 WPST DJs including Mozes, Chris Rollins, and Mark at Kat Man Du in Trenton. DJ Brian is also Ambient's tech whiz and an expert in intelligent lighting.

Greg Lambiase (aka DJ Greg Nice)

Greg Lambiase, has nearly 20 years of experience in the DJ/Entertainment industry, having performed at thousands of private and corporate events. A "DJ's DJ," Greg was born in Manhattan and developed a passion for music at an early age. At age 14, he purchased his first DJ rig and learned to mix vinyl using turntables. While DJing at parties for fun, friends and family saw his talent and encouraged him to pursue his gift of music. During his early 20s, Greg gained experience as a mobile DJ, working for several successful multi-system mobile DJ operators, honing his DJ, Emcee and dance skills.

While pursuing his college degree, Greg co-founded DJ Entertainment company Alpha-Omega Entertainment, which operated successfully between 2005 and 2009. In 2010, Greg Nice went solo, founding GSL Entertainment, based out of Howell, New Jersey. He also joined the Ambient DJ team of mixologists in 2010 in order to support Ambient's high-profile events.

A well-rounded performer, DJ Greg Nice, has received client accolades in events ranging from weddings, mitzvah, Sweet 16s and community events. He has also performed at numerous clubs in the Tri-State area, where he mixes a range of styles, including club, hip hop, mash-ups, pop and 80s music.

Greg believes strongly in providing clients with the highest quality entertainment possible. His people skills, outgoing nature, warm smile and hands-on experience cannot be duplicated! Greg continues to elevate his craft by participating in continuing education and annual DJ conferences.
